GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS SZULIK AND DAGENHART TO EXECUTIVE MANSION FUND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley reappointed Kyle McKinney Szulik of Raleigh and Sarah P. Dagenhart of Charlotte to the Executive Mansion Fund Board of Directors.

Szulik is secretary of the Healing Place of Wake County Board of Directors, a member of the WakeMed Foundation Board of Directors, a former board member of the Raleigh Ensemble Players and of the Community Learning Centers of Wake County. She received her Bachelor's degree in education from UNC at Chapel Hill.

Dagenhart is a member of the Charlotte Junior League. She received her Bachelor's degree in English from Agnes Scott College in Decatur, Ga.

The board raises funds for use in the preservation, improvement and renovation of the Governor's Executive Mansion and generates educational and promotional materials. The board has 20 members, each serving a two-year term. The governor appoints 17 members. The secretary of Cultural Resources, a curator from the Department of Cultural Resources and a representative from the N.C. Museum of Art also serve on the board.
